

Entreflamenco International Escuela Online Disclaimer

We are happy to create this learning opportunity via Vimeo platform for online instruction of flamenco dance. We encourage you to use the material in the videos for your personal advancement in the art form and trust your good faith, ethics and the honor system terms of supporting the use of class study and use of choreography. We hope you find the information and curriculum useful on all levels. Please know, your participation as an online dance student provide financial support to the artists included in these videos.

3 Videos will be posted of 15-20 minutes each in durations of corporal technique, footwork and choreography to mix and combine to create a full lesson. New videos will be updated every 7 days at the beginning of each week. The classes are not live-streamed so you may do the video sessions as many times per week as you please! Total class time will some approximate 50 minutes. Monthly Subscription fee of $120 per month.

The Vimeo channel does not have require you the student to have an account or to be able to view the videos. All videos are private and restricted to sharing to non-registered students and will require a password to be able to view them.

Please review details below regarding online school materials. Payment in full must be received to have full access to video instruction.

- All artist/master instructors' image(s) are copyright.
- Class materials are strictly prohibited to not be posted publicly, shared via social media, sold, distributed, or made accessible in a public forum nor privately via email or in a public location or studio setting.
- Recording, photographing, audio or screen recording are strictly prohibited.
- Sharing protected password is strictly prohibited.